

Qatar Today Green Award winners felicitated

November 14, 2009

DOHA: Members of the MES Campus Care Force (CCF), who won the prestigious Qatar Today Green Award 2009 were felicitated at an exclusive function held in the conference Hall of the school recently.

The MES Force had been awarded with The Runner Up Position for their outstanding initiatives in 'Environmental Vision on the Education Sector' category. Students from class KGI to class XII are actively involved in all the activities of the CCF.

"The CCF of MES had made an initiative that is truly worthy of emulation. The awareness about a clean and healthy environment is of paramount importance in today's world of unhygienic surroundings", said K P Abdul Azeez, General Secretary of the school while honouring the CCF members.

Principal A P Sasidharan reminded the students of the importance of cleanliness of mind as well as physical cleanliness.

P K Mohamed Deputy General Secretary, A Shamsudheen a Director of school who initiated the formation of CCF, A P Khaleel, Director, school discipline and Hygiene also spoke on the occasion. "Small things can make perfection, but perfection is not a small thing," said Shamsudheen

Sasthaa Mujibullah, Chief Co-ordinator of CCF presented a brief report on the activities of the CCF and gave a brief introduction to the award. The CCF secretaries of Boys and Girls' Section, handed over the award to the MES School Management, who in turn presented it to the Principal.

Kevin George, an active CCF leader, welcomed the gathering. Saleema Jasmine, CCF Head Secretary of Girls Section proposed vote of thanks. Sushuruth. S compered the programme.

(The Peninsula)