

SS Lootah, UCM in New Cooperation Deal

24 December 2008

DUBAI - UAE based conglomerate S.S. Lootah Group and German-based UKE Consult and Management GmbH (UCM), the international arm of the University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf (UKE), are pursuing a new cooperation agreement for comprehensive consultancy and management of healthcare services.

An MoU was signed on the sidelines of the Dubai-Hamburg Business Forum, by Eng. Yahya Lootah, Vice-Chairman-CEO of S.S. Lootah Group and Dr. Mathias Goyen, Chief Executive Officer of UCM, in the presence of Hisham Abdullah Al Shirawi, Second Vice Chairman of the Dubai Chamber of Commerce and Industry and Eng. Hamad Buamim, Director General of the Dubai Chamber.

S.S. Lootah's cooperation with UCM will address the following aspects: healthcare consultancy services, management of healthcare projects, design and implementation of hospital management systems and education and training of both medical and administrative personnel.

UCM's expertise in the above areas will be incorporated in the soon-to-be launched hospital project of S.S. Lootah.

{ zawya }